To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Tim Boulware, concerning his professional qualifications in relation to his media and broadcasting talents. Tim is a dedicated and passionate broadcaster who understands the need to be prepared, personable, flexible and professional. Working with fellow professionals, and demonstrating the importance of team work and continued learning are strong character traits of Tim.

I had the privilege of working with Tim during his time in Dodge City as the Voice of the Red Demons. He was the play by play talent for DCHS Football and Basketball, and hosted a weekly coach's show. Tim was also very prepared and courteous with both our students and coaching staff, and developed a professional network of colleagues, allowing him to reach a level of excellence desired both by our department and his own high standards.

Tim Boulware has prepared himself to lead in a positive and professional manner. Any business that seeks excellence in leadership owes it to their community to give Tim an opportunity to introduce himself.

Respectfully,
